

SIP-adus Workshop 2021

Objectives

SIP-adus Workshop 2021 will be carried out to push forward international cooperation, in sharing common issues, establishing global standards, and collaborating researches. We are pleased to join keypersons and specialists in the automated driving system from all over the world for this 8th workshop since 2014, along with you, online. You will be shared:

- The latest global policy trends by keypersons
- Reports of SIP-adus activities
- The latest activities of Research & Development for the automated driving system and its implementation by global specialist

Date and Venue

Plenary Session

- ✓ Date : November 09-10, 2021
- ✓ Venue : Virtual conference

All sessions will be streamed online, additionally streamed in Central European Time and Eastern Standard Time for worldwide participants.

Breakout Workshop

- ✓ Date and venue : Determined for each theme
(detailed information will be posted on the website)

Plenary Session(provisional)

as of September 9

	November 09 start at 9:00(JST)	November 10 start at 9:00(JST)
AM (JST)	Opening / Regional Activities	Dynamic Map
	Impact Assessment	Connected Vehicles
PM (JST)	Service and Business Implementation / FOTs + Human Factors (Joint Session)	Safety Assurance
	Japanese Government	Cybersecurity
		Closing
for Europe	start at 9:30(CET)/17:30(JST)	start at 9:30(CET)/17:30(JST)
for Americas	start at 11:00(EST)/*1:00(JST)	start at 11:00(EST)/*1:00(JST)

* The time will be the next day

Organizer

Cross-Ministerial Strategic Innovation Program, Secretariat of Science, Technology and Innovation Policy, Cabinet Office, Government of Japan

New Energy and Industrial Technology Development Organization (NEDO)

Supported by ITS Japan

For registration and the latest information

<https://en.sip-adus.go.jp/evt/workshop2021/>

